

We create chemistry

BASF in Philippines

Overview

At BASF, we create chemistry for a sustainable future. In the Philippines, BASF has been supporting manufacturers from various industries since 1963. Today, BASF is a leading supplier of chemicals in the country for industries including Chemicals, Construction, Coatings, Automotive, Nutrition & Health, Home & Personal Care, and Agriculture.

Key Facts & Figures

- Number of companies¹: 2 wholly-owned
- Number of employees²: 77 employees
- Sales of BASF Group companies to customers in the Philippines 2022: approximately € 130 million
- Moved the country headquarters from Taguig City to Muntinlupa City in May 2021.

Research & Development

- BASF operates an Agricultural Research Station that conducts research, laboratory studies and field testing of technologies as part of BASF's global research in the field of agricultural solutions.
- In December 2017, the Rice Knowledge Center opened at the Agricultural Research Station in Laguna to help rice farmers boost yields and reduce emissions.

¹ Number of companies includes all BASF companies in the Philippines

² Number of employees includes employees from all companies in the Philippines

Social Engagement Programs

- BASF Kids' Lab
- Support to social enterprise, Plush and Play, through Kids' Lab soft toys; Pamana Inabel, Looking for Juan and JunkNot!, through the company's corporate giveaways;
- Virtual Chemical Reactions Interactive Touch Table exhibit at The Mind Museum;
- Sponsor-a-Child's free museum visit to the Mind Museum;
- The Mind Mobile at Cebu City, a free science show for kids by The Mind Museum;
- Disaster donation through the Philippine National Red Cross and the Philippine Business for Social Progress;
- Annual scholarships in agriculture
